Report on Drama and Singing Competition under SVEEP

Wednesday, the 30th of August, 2024, the Cultural activities committee of GDC Shopian organized a vibrant Drama and Singing competition under the aegis of Systematic Voters' Education and Electoral Participation (SVEEP) in the College Auditorium. The event not only aimed to promote artistic expression and engage students in creative endeavours but also to inculcate among them the social skills and the decision making power, specifically when it comes to electoral participation in a democratic society. The programme was moderated by Prof. Mahmood Ahmad Tak, Coordinator IQAC, who in-between the intervals shared his views on these two primary genres of literature i.e Drama and Song Writing and their importance in documenting the contemporary scenario and weaving the social and political fabric of a nation afresh for the generations to come. A diverse group of Students across the semesters participated in this competition. In both the categories of Drama and Singing, the best participants/performers were appreciated as they vehemently focussed on the themes of voter education, inclusive participation in elections, ethical voting so on and so forth. Among the participants, Danish Rehman (3rd semester), Tafazul Yasmeeen (3rd semester) and Sheikh Mohd. Amaan (5th semester) emerged as winners. The audience present in the auditorium enjoyed the programme and applauded the myriad performances of students. Conclusively the formal vote of thanks to the participants, audience and everyone involved in the programme was proposed by Prof. Javid Ahmad Malik, Co-convenor of the committee.
